

YOUR MOVIE EXPERIENCE

Jimmy

Your life reaches further than you know.

This biographical drama follows Jimmy Stewart from Hollywood success into wartime service and his return home, leading toward It's a Wonderful Life. Reflect on service, identity, and hope beyond achievement.

7 days of reflection 4 group gatherings

Keep the story going.

Begin after watching the movie. Use the daily reflections at your own pace, or gather friends, family, or a small group for four conversations. Open your Bible to the Scripture references, then make room to listen, reflect, and respond.

START WITH A CONVERSATION

1. What did the film invite you to consider about success and sacrifice?
2. How can a community make room for someone returning from a difficult season?
3. Whose quiet influence do you want to acknowledge this week?

SEVEN DAYS OF REFLECTION

DAY 1 / READ Ephesians 2:8-10

More than what you achieve

It is easy to let success become the measure of a life. Scripture places grace before the good work we are called to do. Our value is not something we have to earn again each morning.

REFLECT What achievement have you been using to measure your worth?

TRY THIS List three ways you can show love today that will never appear on a résumé.

PRAY God, ground my identity in your grace.

DAY 2 / READ Mark 10:42-45

Serve where you are

Service changes the question from how we can be noticed to whom we can help. Jesus connects greatness with giving ourselves for others. An ordinary responsibility can become an opportunity to live that way.

REFLECT Who benefits from the way you use your influence?

TRY THIS Do one useful task for someone else without seeking recognition.

PRAY Jesus, teach me to use my opportunities to serve.

SEVEN DAYS OF REFLECTION

DAY 3 / READ Psalm 34:18

Make room for the hard chapter

A difficult season does not make a person less worthy of care. God's nearness to the brokenhearted invites us to approach pain with compassion. We can listen without asking someone to make their story easier for us.

REFLECT Who might need space to be honest about a hard experience?

TRY THIS Offer an unhurried conversation without pressing for details or trying to fix everything.

PRAY Lord, make me gentle with the stories others carry.

DAY 4 / READ Galatians 6:2

Receive help

Strength and receiving support can belong together. There are seasons when faithful people need others to help carry the load. A trusted friend, pastor, or qualified counselor can be part of that support.

REFLECT What makes it difficult for you to let someone help?

TRY THIS Ask a trusted person for one specific form of support.

PRAY God, give me humility to receive care.

SEVEN DAYS OF REFLECTION

DAY 5 / READ Matthew 5:14–16

Notice the quiet influence

Much of our influence is unseen: a patient response, a steady friendship, a faithful promise. We may never know every way a life touches another. We can still choose to offer light in the place we have been given.

REFLECT Who shaped your life through quiet faithfulness?

TRY THIS Thank that person with a specific example of their impact.

PRAY Lord, let my ordinary choices bring light to others.

DAY 6 / READ Romans 15:13

Hope for the next chapter

Hope does not require denying what has been lost. It gives us room to believe that a hard chapter is not the whole story. Today we can ask God for enough hope to take the next step.

REFLECT What possibility have you stopped making room for?

TRY THIS Take one small step toward a meaningful relationship or responsibility.

PRAY God of hope, meet me where the future feels uncertain.

SEVEN DAYS OF REFLECTION

DAY 7 / READ Colossians 3:12-17

Live a meaningful ordinary day

A meaningful life is built from days that may not feel remarkable. Kindness, patience, forgiveness, and gratitude give those days substance. Consider what you want the people around you to experience through your presence.

REFLECT What kind of presence do you want to be in your home and community?

TRY THIS Choose one daily act of kindness to practice for the next week.

PRAY Jesus, shape my ordinary days with your love.

What will you carry forward?
